PROFESSIONAL LICENSURE DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

The Master of Science in Nutrition, Professional Practice Concentration is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND) as a Graduate Program through December 2029. Graduates of this program meet both the didactic education and supervised training requirements to be eligible to take the examination for Registered Dietitian Nutritionists (RDN).

This Disclosure is strictly limited to NSU’s determination of whether the M.S. in Nutrition, Professional Practice Concentration (the “Program”), if successfully completed, would be sufficient to meet the educational requirements for licensure or certification in a State, as defined as 34 C.F.R. § 600.2.

NOTE: This Disclosure does not provide any guarantee that any particular State licensure entity will approve or deny your application for certification or professional licensure. Furthermore, this Disclosure does not account for changes in state law or regulations that may affect your application for certification or licensure or occur after this disclosure has been made. If your career plans include pursuing professional licensure or certification in your chosen field, it is important to become educated on the credentialing requirements of the state in which you hope to practice by contacting the state’s licensure entity.

In accordance with 34 C.F.R. § 668.43, NSU has determined whether the Program satisfies State educational requirements for licensure as follows:

PROGRAM MEETS EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS	EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS CANNOT BE DETERMINED
In 45 U.S. states where license is required at the time of this posting, including Florida. Exceptions are noted to the right in this table.	Arizona – No licensing required California – No licensing required Colorado – No licensing required Michigan – No licensing required Virginia – No licensing required

State licensure or certification requirements can vary from state to state, including the practice of telehealth (delivering services over state boundaries) depending on each State's laws and regulations. The State licensure entities are responsible for overseeing the educational and non-educational requirements for licensure or certification for their State.

Florida licensing requirements for nutrition and dietetics are posted at www.floridahealth.gov/licensing-and-regulation/dietetic-nutrition/index.html. Professional association websites such as: <https://www.cdrnet.org/LicensureMap> or <https://theana.org/advocate> can be a resource for professional practice guidelines across the United States.

We encourage all enrolled students and prospective students to contact their applicable State licensure entities to familiarize themselves with the specific professional licensure or certification requirements. For information on how to contact State licensure entities, please visit the U.S. Department of Education State Contacts webpage at: <https://www2.ed.gov/about/contacts/state/index.html?src=contact-us>

If you have trouble obtaining the information you need, or if you have any other questions regarding certification, please contact the Nutrition Department's Chair Dr. Stephanie N. Petrosky at 954-262-1597 or spetrosky@nova.edu.
