PROFESSIONAL LICENSURE DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

This Disclosure is strictly limited to Nova Southeastern University's (NSU) determination of whether the Nova Southeastern University, Dr. Kiran C Patel College of Osteopathic Medicine's Doctor of Physical Therapy programs, if successfully completed, would be sufficient to meet the educational requirements for licensure or certification in a State, as defined as 34 C.F.R. § 600.2.

NOTE: This Disclosure does not provide any guarantee that any particular State licensure entity will approve or deny your application for certification or professional licensure. Furthermore, this Disclosure does not account for changes in state law or regulations that may affect your application for certification or licensure or occur after this disclosure has been made. Suppose your career plans include pursuing professional licensure or certification in your chosen field. In that case, it is important to become educated on the credentialing requirements of the state in which you hope to practice by contacting the state's licensure entity.

In accordance with 34 C.F.R. § 668.43, NSU has determined whether the Program satisfies State educational requirements for licensure as follows: The Doctor of Physical Therapy Programs satisfy state education requirements for licensure in all 50 states.

State licensure or certification requirements can vary from state to state, depending on each State's laws and regulations. The State licensure entities are responsible for overseeing the educational and non-educational requirements for licensure or certification for their State.

We encourage all enrolled students and prospective students to contact their applicable State licensure entities to familiarize themselves with the specific professional licensure or certification requirements. For information on how to contact State licensure entities, please visit the U.S. Department of Education State Contacts webpage at: <https://www2.ed.gov/about/contacts/state/index.html?src=contact-us>

If you have trouble obtaining the information you need, or if you have any other questions regarding certification, please contact Dr. Shari Rone-Adams at srone@nova.edu for assistance.
