Be the Leader Your Community Needs for a Healthier Future.

Earn the versatility of a public health degree with Nova Southeastern University's (NSU's) forward-thinking Master of Public Health (M.P.H.) program. Based in NSU's Dr. Kiran C. Patel College of Osteopathic Medicine (KPCOM), the program prepares you to define, critically assess, and resolve problems by applying the theories, concepts, and principles of public health. Leverage a flexible curriculum designed to accommodate a diversity of backgrounds and individual career goals, with the options of on-site or online learning.

Demand for public health professionals is growing because of emerging and re-emerging diseases, environmental health concerns, health care reform, and sociopolitical factors affecting health worldwide. Gain the tools and expertise to work in a variety of settings and active roles, and prepare to be the leader your community needs for a healthier future.

Get the NSU edge.
