

Nova Southeastern University College of Osteopathic Medicine

Policy:	Eligibility for Remediation
COM Program/Degree:	Osteopathic Medicine Program/D.O.
Effective Date Issued:	July 29, 2019
Student Handbook Issue:	2019-20 Academic Year

The portion of the Eligibility for Remediation policy for the M1 Course Year of Study has changed. The original policy, which can be found on pages 120-121 of the 2019-2020 COM Student Handbook, is replaced with the following:

3. Eligibility for Remediation

OMS1 and OMS2 students who earn a grade lower than 70 or an F in any course by not meeting course requirements stated in the course syllabus will be provided with an opportunity, if eligible, to remediate the course. The student will be contacted by the Office of Preclinical Education with the specific details regarding the date and time of the remediation examinations. Students who miss a remediation examination will not be offered a make-up examination and will receive a grade of zero for the examination.

The student should contact the appropriate course director for information regarding a review of course materials, assigned readings, or review sessions that may be made available prior to the remediation examinations.

M1 Course Year of Study

Failure of Up To 24% of Credit Hours in a Semester

A student who fails up to 24% of course credits in the M1 Fall Semester (up to 6.5 credit hours) will be provided with an opportunity to remediate each failed course (see Course Remediation under Course Reexamination, Remediation, and Retakes section in this handbook).

A student who fails up to 24% of course credits in the Winter and Summer Semesters (up to 9.5 credit hours) will be provided with an opportunity to remediate each failed course (see Course Remediation under Course Reexamination, Remediation, and Retakes section in this handbook).

Failure of More than 24%, but No More than 30% of Credit Hours in a Semester

A student who fails more than 24%, but no more than 30%, of course credits in the M1 Fall Semester (between 7 and 8 credit hours) will not be permitted to remediate any of the failed courses. The student must repeat the course(s) failed at the next course offering.

A student who fails more than 24%, but no more than 30%, of course credits in the M1 Winter and Summer Semesters (between 10.0 and 12.0 credit hours) will not be permitted to remediate any of the failed courses. The student must repeat the course(s) failed at the next course offering.

Failure of Greater Than 30% of Credit Hours in a Semester

A student who fails greater than 30% of course credits in the M1 Fall Semester (8.5 or more credit hours) will be subject to dismissal from the Dr. Kiran C. Patel College of Osteopathic Medicine, as described in the section addressing Academic and Behavioral Disciplinary Sanctions, under Dismissal.

A student who fails greater than 30% of course credits in the M1 Winter and Summer Semesters (12.5 or more credit hours) will be subject to dismissal from the Dr. Kiran C. Patel College of Osteopathic Medicine, as described in the section addressing Academic and Behavioral Disciplinary Sanctions, under Dismissal.