Learning is for a LIFETIME!

The Nova Southeastern University Lifelong Learning Institute and Aventura Turnberry Jewish Center are hosting challenging and intellectual offerings for the community.

Spring 2018 Lifelong Learning Classes

All classes are on Mondays and run from 10-11:30 a.m.

• 20th century American Transitions with Vincent Toscano, Ph.D.
  There are a number of distinctive characteristics of contemporary American society whose roots can be traced back at least to the beginnings of the 20th Century. While separate from each other they form a picture of the political, economic and social realities of America as reflected in governmental practices and policy. Join Vince Toscano, Ph.D., retired professor from Marist College, in a series that will trace the events, forces, factors and actors which have shaped their evolution in the 20th century into the 21st century. Each lecture will stand alone or attend the series.

  March 5: Vincent Toscano, Ph.D. • The Imperial-Warfare State (See description above)
  March 12: Vincent Toscano, Ph.D. • The Social Welfare State (See description above)
  March 19: Vincent Toscano, Ph.D. • The Internal Security State (See description above)

  Cost per class: $15 / Cost for 3-part Toscano series: $35

  **************************************************************************

• March 26: Steve Schlesinger • New York: Downtown 59th Street to the Bowery, East and West Side
  Join Steve on a virtual tour of New York City. Learn new facts about the buildings and history of the Big Apple.

• April 2: Armando Droulars • Henri Toulouse-Lautrec/From Aristocrat to Bohemian
  As a refined aristocrat, master draftsman and printer, Toulouse Lautrec recorded the Paris night like no other artist before him. A bon vivant, he loved good food & drink as much as he enjoyed the performances of the Paris cabarets, circuses and operas. Armando will show you his works, some of the most captivating images of la Belle Epoque.

• April 9: Armando Droulars • Fernand Léger / Expanding Modernist Horizons
  Fernand Léger was born of peasant stock. His humble beginnings were not indicative of the role he was to play among the Parisian avant grade. His association and collaboration with the leading poets, architects and designers of his time led him to participate in some of the most important artistic events of his time.

• April 16: Freya Homer • Visas for Life, The Chiune Sugihara
  During the Second World War, Sugihara, a Japanese government official who served as vice consul for the Japanese Empire in Lithuania, helped thousands of Jews flee Europe by issuing transit visas so that they could travel through Japanese territory, risking his job and his family's lives.

• April 23: Lillian Schanfield, Ph.D. • Shakespeare’s Great Question: “To be or not to be?”
  As we celebrate William Shakespeare’s birthday today, join Dr. Schanfield, Professor Emerita of Barry University, to discuss the famous Shakespearean speech by Hamlet, locating it in the context of the play and considering the ideas it presents to us.

• April 30: Rebecca Staton-Reinstein • Alexander Hamilton: How an illegitimate, immigrant boy from the islands saved the Republic and destroyed himself
  Hamilton, the musical, walked away with 11 Tony Awards for the hip-hop retelling of the story of our most controversial and brilliant founding father, Alexander Hamilton. You’ll be fascinated by his adventurous, flamboyant, patriotic, and tragic life. Learn why we owe this remarkable man so much and how our personal foibles can undo us.
